| 10.00am | Welcome | |
| 10.15am | Associate Professor Carol Liston | Land Title Records Dr Liston will provide advice and guidance to assist researchers in accessing and using the historically significant records that Land and Property Information is making available through its SIX Portal – the official source of NSW geospatial information, which also provides access to authoritative land and property information. (A two-hour session with a morning tea break.) |
| 11.15am | Morning Tea | |
| 11.45am | | Land Title Records (continued) |
| 12.45pm | Lunch | |
| 1.30pm | Christine Yeats | Furnishing your Ancestor's House Biographical and family history is much more than lists of names and genealogical charts. It is about getting to know the person by exploring their lives and considering when, where and how they lived. One of the ways you can do this is through research into their homes and possessions. Join Christine Yeats as she discusses the range of printed and archival resources available to researchers to help discover how your ancestors may have furnished their houses. |
| 2.30pm | Christine Yeats | Unlocking Trove's Hidden Gems - Government Gazettes Government Gazettes contain a range of valuable and interesting content. The NSW Government Gazettes from 1832 and the Commonwealth of Australia Government Gazettes from 1901 are now available online via Trove. Christine Yeats will discuss how to make the best use of these resources for your research. |
| 3.30pm | Seminar Close | |

About the RAHS Regional Seminar Program and Grants Program

The RAHS 2016-2018 regional seminar program is supported by grant funding from Create NSW. The goal of the program is to develop historical expertise in the community that will help support history and heritage projects.

The RAHS also administers the Cultural Grants Program, an Create NSW devolved funding program that assists historical research and publication of local, community and regional history projects.

To learn more about regional seminars, grants, RAHS membership and how we can support your history projects, see our website www.rahs.org.au or contact us on (02) 9247 8001.
