

Create NSW RAHS/State Archives & Records Seminar
Taking your Research Outside the Square

Time	Speaker	Topic
10.00am	Christine Yeats (President, RAHS)	Welcome and introduction
10.15am	Associate Professor Carol Liston AO (Senior Vice President, RAHS)	Land Titles Records Carol Liston will provide advice and guidance to assist researchers in accessing and using the historically significant records that Land and Property Information is making available through its SIX Portal – the official source of NSW geospatial information which also provides access to authoritative land and property information.
11.15am	Dr Kathrine Reynolds (Treasurer, RAHS)	Convict Women to NSW 1801–36 and Maintaining Large Numbers of Records Kathrine Reynolds will discuss how to organise, maintain and recover large volumes of records within the context of a project that she and Carol Liston are currently undertaking. This involves investigating convict women transported from England in 1801–36, using various jurisdictions, including Old Bailey Online and Assizes, comparing the women’s lives pre-conviction and in Australia.
Lunch break
12.45pm	Carol Liston	Land Titles Records continued
1.45pm	Dr Penny Stannard (Exhibitions Curator at NSW State Archives & Records)	Women and Leadership: Then and Now This talk will provide an overview of NSW State Archives’ current exhibition, Blaze: Working Women, Public Leaders , focusing on the research and curatorial approaches involved in situating history within contemporary discussions. A selection of case studies of women featured in the exhibition will be highlighted. Dr Penny Stannard, Exhibitions Curator at NSW State Archives, has carved out a multi-faceted career as a curator, arts manager, educator, researcher and public policy maker working in the community, creative industries, government and education sectors roles that have at their core, public and stakeholder engagement through cultural practice.

Time	Speaker	Topic
Afternoon tea
3.00pm	Christine Yeats	Getting the most from Trove's Government Gazettes and Journals Zones Trove is so much more than newspapers – it brings together resources and content from various institutions across Australia that can be searched under one umbrella. Christine Yeats will advise on how to get the most from the Government Gazettes and Journals available on Trove.
3.45pm	Wind up	