

The Royal Australian Historical Society in conjunction with Bathurst District Historical Society

Regional Seminar Program

Digging deeper into our history

Saturday 6 April 2019

Time	Speaker	Topic
9.30	Registration
9.45	Welcome – Christine Yeats, President of the Royal Australian Historical Society
10.00	Associate Professor Carol Liston	Land title records Land title records are a key resource for family and local historians. Dr Carol Liston will provide advice and guidance on accessing and using these historically significant records. A two hour session with a break for morning tea
11.00	Morning tea
11.30	Associate Professor Carol Liston	Land title records (continued)
12.30	Lunch
1.30	Christine Yeats	Digging deeper into Trove Trove is an ever expanding, and freely available, resource. Christine Yeats will provide research tips and strategies for making the best of your searches on Newspapers, Gazettes, Journals, Diaries, Letters and Maps.
2.30	Judith Dunn	Parramatta Female Factory – Grim Prison or a Place of Idleness? This talk will reveal the remaining buildings of the Female Factory and explore the lifestyle of women convicts living there. Far from the weaker sex, meek and depressed, they were feisty, street wise and a bit lippy! Although humorous at times, this is also a thought provoking talk describing the gaol system lived by these women.
3.30	Close	