THE
ROYAL VISIT

TO
NEW SOUTH WALES

3RD FEBRUARY 1954 18TH MARCH

PUBLISHED TO COMMEMORATE THE VISIT OF
HER MAJESTY QUEEN ELIZABETH II AND HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS
THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH TO THE STATE OF NEW SOUTH WALES

A U S T R A L I A

THE people of New South Wales will joyously welcome Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II, and His Royal Highness, The Duke of Edinburgh, to the Commonwealth of Australia. We, like other Australians, will take joy in doing proud homage to the Throne and in greeting the young Monarch whom we already regard with so much affection and loyalty.

Queen Elizabeth is at once a supreme symbol of unity and a living expression of that family spirit so revered by her subjects. As a Queen, she brings grace and imperial dignity to her throne which is the cornerstone of the British Commonwealth; as a mother, together with her noble husband and their two children, she forms the kind of family circle that is the strength of any Commonwealth.

On February 3, 1954, the Royal Couple will land at Farm Cove, the historic shore on which Her Majesty's parents landed 27 years ago. The Duke of Edinburgh will bring with him memories of his war service in Australia, but Her Majesty's impressions of this, her southern realm, will be novel.

May their progress through New South Wales, and through the States beyond, bring as much pleasure to these two welcome visitors as their own presence will bring to the people of Australia. God Save Queen Elizabeth!
