

Cultural Grants 2022 Assessment Report

The 2022 Cultural Grant program was assessed online via Zoom . The assessors were Associate Professor Carol Liston, Samantha Friend and Lorraine Neate. The process was overseen by Maryanne Byrne from The Royal Australian Historical Society.

The following statistics give a broad overview of the 2022 grant program:

- 28 applications received
- total of 18 projects were recommended for funding, to the value of $59,105
- the highest amount awarded was $5,000
- 60 % of projects focussed on regional areas, 23 % on metropolitan Sydney and 17% on Western Sydney.

Successful projects:

- had strong supporting evidence such as quotes, photographs etc
- had a clear and achievable project plan with milestones identified

Unsuccessful projects:

- had no proper budget or quotes
- did not have a clear project plan or could not explain the project output clearly
- did not reflect the outcomes of the grant program or meet the eligibility criteria
